

BE-GE

BE-GE 7150

The seats illustrated are fitted with extra items.

This model can also be equipped with a seat cushion extension, which provides easier adjustment of the length of the seat in order to sit in the most ergonomical position.

BE-GE 7150 mean a great deal: not least comfort and quality, both physical and technical.

BE-GE 7150 is a reinforced air suspended driver seat. It is designed to withstand the most extreme working environments such as in construction vehicles. The seat is equipped with a pneumatic system (+ / -), it can also be specified with stepless weight independent height adjustment. The controls for the quick air release for comfortable entry and exit and the stepless height adjustment can be mounted on either side of the seat.

Standards:

ISO 6683, SAE J386 (2 -point belt)
SAE J2292 (3- and 4-point belt)
ISO 7096, EM1, EM3
FMVSS 302, ISO 3795, 76/115/EEC

BE-GE 7150

BE-GE 7150 is equipped with air suspension and a pneumatic system (+/-), which gives an easy and quick height adjustment, lumbar support, protective bellow and slide rails in reinforced version. The height and weight adjustment system can be exchanged to a weight independent height adjustment system.

Options:

The seat can be fitted with electrical heating in seating and backrest, Airvent, seat cushion extension, different types of headrest, armrests, alarm contact, 3-point or 4-point seatbelt, quick release backrest adjustment, Compressor, Comfort line and various types of bases.

